

ENCORE

Take a leading role in shaping the future of the Arts in South Australia through a gift in your Will.

ADELAIDE FESTIVALCENTRE
FOUNDATION

"A Gift in Will to the Adelaide Festival Centre Foundation is testament to one's belief in the very special place that the arts and creativity hold and help shape our culture. It is an opportunity to invest in our culture and our future generations. It is respecting the people who have given in the past, knowing that you will be helping later."

The Foundation provides opportunities for young people to experience the arts – and for the arts to then become part of their future self, to me, is a wonderful and joyous thing. We can all share in the joy now - the current good - knowing that through a Gift in Will this joy will be nurtured."

Sam Harvey
Adelaide Festival Centre Foundation Donor.

LET YOUR ENCORE BE A LASTING GIFT

Leave a gift in your Will to the Adelaide Festival Centre Foundation and take a leading role in shaping the future of the arts in South Australia

The performing arts have a powerful and profound effect on our lives. Leaving a gift in your will is an enduring way to support what you value most: celebrating your passion for the arts while ensuring world class arts experiences for future generations to come.

The Adelaide Festival Centre Foundation would not be complete without its active community of supporters. With your support we can continue to shape the arts in South Australia and provide life changing arts opportunities for all.

HOW YOUR GIFT WILL MAKE A DIFFERENCE

By supporting the Adelaide Festival Centre Foundation, you are helping in our mission to provide 'Arts for All', extending the reach and impact of Adelaide Festival Centre's education, access, regional, exhibitions, audience engagement and diversity programs, while helping us create a thriving future for the arts in South Australia.

Your support helps the Foundation to plan well into the future, bringing the stories of the world to Adelaide, creating active learning experiences and career development opportunities, and removing barriers from participation in the arts for the next generation.

ESTATE MANAGEMENT AND WILL WORDING

When creating or updating a Will, we suggest you consult a legal adviser to ensure that your Will is valid and that your wishes are expressed correctly. If you do not have a solicitor, you can consult the Law Institute of South Australia to find a solicitor in your area who specialises in Wills and Estates. It's important to use the correct wording and legal names when making a gift in your Will to ensure that it can be used as you intended.

The Adelaide Festival Centre Foundation recommends the following wording in consultation with your legal advisers when drafting your Will:

Unrestricted Bequest

I give (the sum of $___/ or ___%/ residue of my estate/personal property/real estate/shares) to Adelaide Festival Centre Foundation Incorporated (ABN 12 929 134 938), and I declare that the receipt of the authorised officer of the Foundation for the gift shall be sufficient discharge to my executor/trustees.

Bequest for a Specific Purpose

I give (the sum of $___/ or ___%/ residue of my estate/personal property/real estate/shares) to Adelaide Festival Centre Foundation Incorporated (ABN 12 929 134 938), to be applied to and I declare that the receipt of the authorised officer of the Foundation for the gift shall be sufficient discharge to my executor/trustees. If the specific purpose is no longer valid at the time of my death then the bequest may be used for a general purpose the Foundation determines to most closely align with the stated purpose.

“If you have enjoyed and appreciated the arts in South Australia, as proffered at Adelaide Festival Centre, a bequest is a way of offering a contribution to the arts in SA for their diverse and accessible continuity.”
