

Arts Leadership Program

Instigated by Richard Ryan

Selection Criteria

1. Provide your Curriculum Vitae demonstrating your relevant experience relating to leadership including community engagement outside of your organisation.
2. Submit a brief application (400 words) summarising your interest in the Arts Leadership Program by answering the following questions:
 - a. Where do you see yourself in 5 years?
 - b. What is your understanding of your leadership style?
 - c. What determines the way art and culture are presented?
 - d. Do you agree diversity and inclusion is important in the arts and culture sector? And why?

Please include a demonstration of the following in your answers:

- Ambition, vision, and a commitment to progress your arts leadership practice within a collaborative and inclusive environment.
 - An ability to, or willingness to learn to, reflect on and adapt personal leadership styles.
 - Awareness of issues affecting the arts sector, and commitment to growth, innovation, and a future focus.
 - An understanding of the importance of diversity and cultural awareness within the arts sector, and a commitment to build upon global links to your existing communities and organisations.
3. Provide a letter of support that endorses your achievements or potential as a future leader.